MRS. GREEN DIED. Mrs. W.J. Green of Hilliard died here last Thursday at the residence of her sister, Mrs. L.E. Mallard. She was a daughter of N.N. Mizell who died here about three years ago. She was a member of Bethel Methodist Church. She leaves her husband, seven children and one sister, Mrs. L.E. Mallard, and the following brothers, J.S. Mizell, Folkston; E.T. and Fred T. Mizell, Savannah; W.F. Mizell, Waycross; Robert Mizell, Dallas; Carl Mizell, Jacksonville. Mrs. Green was sick 18 days here prior to her death and was here to be near the doctor. Her remains were buried out at Bethel Friday, Rev. M.M. Marshall of the Methodist Church conducted the funeral and burial services.

NEW STORE RENTED. J.W. Vickery & Co. is the title of the firm in Mr. Scott's new white front brick-built store. Everything in there is fixed up to the standard of the present day grocery.

WEDDING. Chas. T. Young and Miss Emma Adna Langford of Homeland were married Christmas Eve day by Rev. Arthur Roberts. We wish the happy couple all that can be extracted from life.

ANOTHER WEDDING. Lewis Henderson and Miss Hattie Hurst were married here on the 26th by Ordinary Stokes.

FENCE COMPLETED. The beautiful fence in front of the Scott residence is finished, and is indeed a feast to the eyes.

WEDDING. Oscar F. Birch and Mrs. Bessie Smith were married at the residence of Ordinary Stokes Tuesday night.

January 8th, 1914

THE CITIZENS BANK. The Citizens Bank has elected officers for the new year as follows: President, B.F. Scott; V. President, William Mizell; V. President, B.G. McDonald; Cashier, D.F. Pearce; Assistant Cashier, Clyde Mizell. B.F. Scott tried to get out of being made president again but the stockholders put him in anyhow. Resources of the bank at this time are $84,594.56.

PATRICK S. ALLEN DIED. Patrick Seaborn Allen died Friday morning, January 2nd at 8 o'clock at his home near Newell. His remains were laid to rest in the Allen Cemetery. Patrick was a young man of sterling worth just in the bloom of life, being 21 years and a few months old. He made friends wherever he went, being a young man of sobriety, honest, upright and truthful.

WEDDING. Married on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Broadus G. Jones to Miss Fe Baker, Rev. M.M. Marshall of the Methodist Church officiating. Mr. Jones is a son of Rev. G.E. Jones of the Baptist Church of this place and is one of our most popular young men. Miss Baker is a daughter of our esteemed neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Baker, and is a young lady of attractive and winning personality. Broadus is receiving the congratulations of his friends on being the fortunate winner. The Herald offers congratulations and "with love at the helm and joy at the mast, may their barque sail gently over life's sea without a disturbing ripple."

CARD OF THANKS. I am resigning my respective churches, Folkston, St. George, Scriven, Mt. Zion and Camp Pinckney for the purpose of working in the Jacksonville Association as Missionary. Thanking all the people for their courtesies and good will toward me, I am sincerely, G.E. JONES.

MUSICAL SHIVAREE. The boys had the tin pans and buckets, old plows and bells around the house of a newly-married pair Monday night and the woods certainly did with music ring for a while.

SCHOOLS PROGRESS. At the County Board of Education meeting the trustees of the Uptonville School District showed they have a school building complete and paid for costing $705.24. These people have run their school and paid for the house within three years. Also the report of the Traders Hill School District shows a neat and up to date school building costing less than $500.00 which will soon be paid for under the tax system. These, together with the report of Stokesville's new building speaks well for these communities.

MRS. BROOKS DIED. We regret to learn that Mrs. M.H. Brooks has been very ill for several days and is still critical.....Just on going to press we learn that Mrs. Brooks died at 4 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. A more extended notice in our next issue.

January 15th, 1914

MRS. BROOKS. Mrs. Mary H. Brooks died at the residence of her son Jesse M. Brooks on last Thursday morning from a complication of ailments. Mrs. Brooks was about 62 years old and spent the time since childhood in this county. She leaves four boys, J.M.., P.G., P.C., and H.H. Brooks, two daughters, Mrs. E.P. Courson and Mrs. Grace Crews to mourn her loss. Mrs. Brooks was a consistent member of Bethel Church and was buried in Bethel Cemetery last Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock in the presence of sorrowing friends and relatives, Rev. M.M. Marshall performing the last sad rites.

GOOD HUNTER. Harry Chesser, we are informed, killed five ducks at one shot the other day, and not very long ago, this young gentleman killed four bears.

TRADERS HILL SCHOOL. F.E. Brock is now in charge of the school at Traders Hill.

January 22nd, 1914

UPTONVILLE RE-SURVEYED. Professor C.W. Waughtel has started to work in earnest up at Uptonville and has resurveyed the village and cut it up in lots and will divide the land adjoining the town into forty-acre farms. He will solicit good farmers to settle on them.

MILLS TO BE ORDAINED. Hon. Jos. Mills will be ordained at Mount Zion next Sunday into the full ministry of the Baptist faith.

January 29th, 1914

WEDDING. Married on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Sikes, Newell, their daughter Miss Jessie to Mr. Arthur Allen, Rev. J.A. Thompson uttering the words that join their lives in happy union. The contracting parties are of the county's most prominent and honored families and have hosts of friends who wish them a cheerful and prosperous life.

WEDDING. Mr. John Hathaway and Miss Nita Martin were married last Sunday night at the residence of Ordinary Stokes who performed the ceremony. Miss Nita is a daughter of Alderman and Mrs. E.L. Martin and has numerous friends here who will wish her all happiness. Mr. Hathaway is a Folkston-raised boy who numbers his friends here by the population, but is now a rising young railroad man of Jacksonville. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for Jacksonville where they will reside.

PETERSON'S MILL TO CLOSE. We learn that J.S. Peterson has torn up his tram road and will suspend operation for the present. This is a piece of news we do not like. Everybody liked Peterson and will miss him.

BANK FOR HOMELAND. Homeland is now assured a substantial banking institution, all the details practically having been worked out. There will be a meeting of the stockholders in the near future.

TREES PLANED IN HOMELAND. Members of the Homeland Commercial Club placed a large number of trees along Pennsylvania Avenue and they are not through yet.

JONES WORKING AT DRUG STORE. Broadus Jones is now in charge of Dr. Williams' Drug Store and can be found there all the time.

COURTHOUSE YARD IN GOOD SHAPE. Sheriff Mizell is fixing up the courthouse grounds in fine shape for the coming spring term. He has clayed the walk to the courthouse and the pumps in the yard have been filled around.

BACHLOTT SCHOOL. Miss Maggie Minchew commenced the Bachlott School last Monday

INDULGENT FATHER. Ma llard went to Jacksonville last Friday to buy a doll and carriage for his little girl and she made him stay up most of the night rolling it for her.

CONFEDERATE MEETING IN JACKSONVILLE. We suppose that everybody has been to the Confederate Meeting at Jacksonville this week. The old reliable Coast Line has been shooting them through here at the rate of 40 trainloads a day this week--long, well-filled trains too.

NEW DRUG STORE. Dr. Dallas Williams is having unloaded material to reerect The Drug Store. It will be built this time of concrete blocks and roofed with asbestos. F.G. Fonts arrived here Wednesday and is manipulating the block machine. The doctor expects to have the building completed about June 1st.

McDONALD BUILDING GOING UP. The McDonald white brick building is now fairly underway. Several brick masons have arrived and are putting in full time while the balance of the force are carrying out their part.

FESTIVAL AT BOULOGNE. May Day at Boulogne was a glorious event. The Maypole dance was a complete success. J.C. Allen's little Homer carried off the prize for being the fattest baby with the best looking daddy on the grounds. The Hilliard band furnished sweet airs for the enjoyment of all.

A NEW SCHOOL FOR FOLKSTON. The meeting at the courthouse Thursday night resulted in a decision to build another schoolhouse on the present site, or near there somewhere.

MRS. JANE O'QUINN DIED. Mrs. Jane O'Quinn, wife of J.L. O'Quinn, departed this life on last Friday, May 1st at 10 o'clock AM after about thirteen months of illness. She was buried at Corinth Church Saturday afternoon. She was the mother of seven children, only three living: Mrs. W.C. Donaldson, J.P., and Milton O'Quinn. She was born Christmas Eve day, 1865 and died May 1, 1914 leaving her two boys and one girl and beloved husband; one brother, P.S. Spradley and five sisters, Mrs. Nancy Liles, Mrs. Allen Box, Mrs. Becky Lilles, Mrs. Hannah Mixon and Faimey Spradley.

ALLEN HOME BURNS. Shortly after noon Monday the home of J.C. Allen was reduced to ashes and charred sills in less than an hour's time. Scarcely anything was saved, hardly what you could call a round of clothing for the children. Bedding, dishes and the little conveniences that cannot be replaced were all consumed by the flames. Mr. Allen was away from home at the time of the fire, down at St. George attending to some business. The family was provided pot luck and shelter by friends until the father arrived. Mr. Allen came in Tuesday morning and the family is now in the Baptist Parsonage but the loss of the place so dear to them called "sweet home" is and will long be keenly felt. This is a heavy loss to Joe and we believe the whole community is in sympathy with him and are anxious that he soon pick up his losses. His loss was about $1800.00 with $800.00 insurance.

THE DRUG STORE. We have been treated to some soft gentle strains of "country alto" from the voices of Roy Mizell and Jim Wright this week as they were busily toting the blocks for building the Drug Store.

May 21, 1914

MILLS HOME BURNS. Another fire, this time it was the residence of Alex Mills and in less than an hour's time nothing was left at all. The fire was about nine o'clock at night and originated just like all the rest of the fires, nobody knows just exactly how, but it went up in smoke all the same. This is the fourth fire for us within a short space. The loss of the many home comforts will be greatly missed by the family. The building was owned by Rev. Joe Mills and was insured for $600.00 and Alex carried $300.00 insurance on his household goods.

MISS ISABELLA SHEFFIELD DIED. Miss Isabella Sheffield died at her home here Monday night at the age of about 77 years. She was buried at Zion Old Cemetery in Camden County Tuesday. The funeral was preached by Rev. Kemp of the St. Marys Methodist Church. Miss Sheffield spent her entire life in this immediate section, born in Camden County and was a resident of Folkston 25 or 30 years. The principle cause of her death was attributed to old age. She left two sisters, Mrs. Novenia Roddenberry, Folkston and Mrs. Mallette of Brooklyn, Ga.

ELECTION RETURNS. What the ballots told on Thursday: For Representative, G.W. Reynolds; for Clerk of Superior Court, J.C. Allen; for Sheriff, W.H. Mizell; for County Treasurer, O.F. Wilson; for Tax Collector, J.M. Roddenberry; for Tax Receiver, H.H. Crews; for County Surveyor, J.M. Wildes and for Coroner, H.P. Wildes.

HERMAN DAVIS OPENS STORE. Herman Davis is now in the cold drink, ice cream, lemonade and and parched pinders [peanuts] business in the last room of Davis' block.

WAUGHTELS MOVE AWAY. The many friends of Leroy Wayne Waughtel will regret to learn that he and his family have left for their old home in the north with the intention of leaving us.

WINOKUR SCHOOL. Winokur School Trustees are asking for bids for their new school building which is to be built soon.

FOLKSTON SCHOOL. The Folkston School District has decided to rebuild with brick and the question of bonding the district is being talked of.

NEW BABY. The rain of Thursday night was double luck for Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Catoe – a sweet little girl arrived during the downpour.

WEDDING INVITATION. Friends of these popular young people have received the following invitation: Mr. and Mrs. William Mizell request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Estelle to Howard Hall Davis on the afternoon of Thursday the 11th day of June at 5:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church in Kings Ferry, Fla.

FOR SALE. One-half acre of land in city limits of Folkston, together with one 15 horsepower boiler and engine; corn mill; 3 cotton gins; one cotton press, together with all belting and everything else connected with what is known as the Paxton Ginnery; also one mare and buggy. Apply to Jehu Paxton.

McDONALD BUILDING. The McDonald structure is under full headway and is assuming proportions under Foreman O'Neal.

June 11, 1914

NEW BARBER IN TOWN. C.E. Stroup of St. George has purchased the barber shop of A.L. Kilbury and assumed control Tuesday morning. Mr. Stroup is well known in this county and doubtless will do a good business in his line.

McdONALD'S BUILDING. J.F. Bell, who has the contract for the brick work on the McDonald building, informs us he will complete it by the end of this week. When the brick hull is turned over to the carpenters it won't be many days before this grand structure, complete, will stand before us a monument and a standing advertisement of Folkston's prosperity.

POSTMASTER EXAM. The examination for Postmaster at Folkston will be held in Folkston on July 8th.

WEDDING. Jeb Martin and Miss Clyde Reville were married Wednesday night and we were going to say something about it, but a kind friend who attended has sent in an article which gives all particulars. The article is as follows: One of the prettiest home weddings for the "month of roses" took place at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. T.P. Reville last evening when they gave their daughter, Clyde, in marriage to Jeb Martin of Chickamauga. The bride was becomingly gowned in a beautiful bridal dress of white milk crepe, lace trimmed, and she carried roses. She is the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Reville, formerly of Brunswick, who moved to this city over three years ago. Mr. Martin is a rising young railroad man and is engaged with the Georgia Central R.R.

THE CITIZENS BANK. Statement of Condition of The Citizens Bank at the WEDDING. The marriage of Miss Beulah Estelle Mizell and Howard Hall Davis of Crandall was solemnized last Thursday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock at First Methodist Church at Kings Ferry. Rev. Longacre of Fernandina performed the ceremony.

WEDDING. On last Sunday evening at 2:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Altman, Elvie Gibson was happily united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Emma Altman. The rites were performed by Rev. Flanders. The happy couple left on "22" the same evening for Brunswick, where after spending a few days, they will return to Waycross for their future home.

WEDDING. Married at 5:00 last Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in Maysville, S.C., Jas. Purdom and Miss Fannie Mays. Miss Mays is one of our most estimable ladies and has made a host of friends during her stay in Folkston. Mr. Purdom is a substantial R.R. boy and is at the head of the electric signal and lock switching service for the A.C.L. here.

SCHOOL TEACHERS' SALARY. The state has not paid one dollar to the school teachers for the work done the present year. Mallard and the Board of Education are borrowing money to pay the teachers for their work. Could not some arrangements be made by Georgia to pay her teachers promptly and save this expensive borrowing.

MATTOX HAS NEW AUTOMOBILE. J.J. Mattox was here this week in a brand new machine and was handling the levers just as easy as rocking a rocker. Stanley was here Sunday and said "Yes, right shortly Jim is fixing to blow himself up with that machine!"

NEW BABY. H.W. Anderson liked to have got our goat – the boy is over two weeks old, and a fine one – we'll be on time if you should be so fortunate again, H.W.

June 25, 1914

THE DRUG STORE. M.L. Martin is bringing The Drug Store right along, in spite of these scorching days and it is showing up finely.

NEW BABY. A fine girl arrived Tuesday early to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Davis.

EMMA CHATMAN DIED. Emma Chatman, colored, wife of Silas Chatman, died very suddenly here Friday evening from acute indigestion. This couple of colored people were just about raised by the white people of Folkston and a great many of them were shocked by the news of her death and feel for "Si" in his trouble. Emma Moody, as she was known and Si had only been married for about four months.

FOR SALE. All household and kitchen furniture in the Central Hotel with the exception of three bedroom sets and the parlor furniture. A.E. STEWART.

SCHOOLS. Schools are beginning to open in some sections of the county.

McDONALD BUILDING. W.J. Gassett of Waycross was down here Tuesday looking after his contract on the McDonald building and says he's just starting to embellish this beautiful structure.

NOTICE. Members of 195 F&AM are requested to meet in Davis Hall the third Tuesday in July. There will be no meeting on the first Saturday owing to the granting of a dispensation and the lack of paraphernalia. C.W. WAUGHTEL, W.M.

JULY 4TH CLOSING. The depot here will be closed July 4th. Mayor Page needs a day off, and we hope he'll enjoy it.

July 9, 1914

ALLEN HAS GOOD TIME. D.G. Thomas brought up his machine and carried J.C. Allen and family over to Boulogne on the fourth, where they say Joe carried off the laurels as a dancer and all-around mixer.

POSTMASTER EXAMS. The following took civil service examinations for postmaster at Folkston Wednesday: Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Robinson, Mrs. M.J. Paxton, H.J. Davis, T.W. Vickery and Dr. Dallas Williams.

KENDRICK CHILD DIED. Friday night the thirteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Kendrick died at 37 Elizabeth Street after a brief illness. The baby was taken sick out of the city and was brought here for medical attention. The funeral service, which was conducted by Rev. R.A. Brown, was held Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock, interment being at Oakland Cemetery ---- Monday's Waycross Journal.

NEW RESIDENCE. The cornerstone was laid for L.J. White's residence today.

ALLEN SCHOOL. Miss Sibbie Wainright is progressing very nicely with the Allen School.

July 16, 1914

WHITE'S RESIDENCE. Martin and Martin are busy erecting a residence on the lot of L.J. White.

July 23, 1914

MOUNT ZION REVIVAL. The meeting which closed Saturday night out at Mt. Zion under the management of Rev. McGraw of Jesup and Courson of Kingsland was very successful and the people of this settlement are well pleased. There were 21 additions; 12 by baptism and 9 otherwise.

July 30, 1914

NEW BABY. Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Smith announce the birth of a fine boy Tuesday.

LANDSCAPING. Mr. Scott has planted a large chinaberry tree in front of the east side of his store which will add much to the beauty of our side of town.

FIRE. On Wednesday morning the home of Jesse Brooks caught fire from the stove flue. A crowd soon gathered and put out the flames. No loss.

McDONALD BUILDING. The McDonald building is rapidly nearing completion. It is a splendid looking structure and adds very much to the western side of town.

MRS. J.S. JOHNS DIED. On last Saturday occurred the death of Mrs. J.S. Johns. She was born in 1862 in Pierce County, coming to Folkston only a short time ago. A husband and nine children are left to mourn her death. Her body was interred in Pigeon Creek Church Cemetery in Nassau County. During the last five years of her life Mrs. Johns suffered much from cancer. The Herald offers heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved.

AUNT JUDY CHATMAN DIED. On the 23rd of July Aunt Judy Chatman died. She was 72 years old and had made many friends among the white people of Folkston as well as being honored greatly by her own race. Old Uncle Silas Chatman and Aunt Judy were often pointed out as a couple full of thrift and honesty.

EDITOR F.M. DeGRAFFENREID DIED. On last Thursday morning F.M. DeGraffenreid died suddenly of heart failure while standing at the depot in Folkston. Mr. DeGraffenreid with his family moved here from Waycross three years ago, he taking management of the Charlton County Herald in hand, which he very successfully conducted until death claimed him. He was born in Chester, S.C.in 1863 and was christened and reared in the Episcopal Church. He leaves a wife and four children, two boys who are small and two girls, Kathleen and Julia Belle, both of whom are teachers and highly accomplished young ladies, and a brother and sister, both of Savannah. The body was conveyed to Jasper, Fla. and laid to rest in the cemetery at that place. He once resided at Jasper and he and his family have many friends and a number of relatives in that city. May the sod rest lightly over our good friend.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Notice is hereby given that the St. George Telephone Co. has changed hands and the name has also been changed to the Ham Telephone Co. of St. George. R.E. WILSON.

August 13, 1914

WINOKUR SCHOOL. A handsome school building is in course of construction at Winokur.

TELEPHONE COMPANY. C.E. Hobbs of Callahan was here the first of the week and put through a deal by which he becomes the owner and manager of the Folkston Telephone exchange, giving to his new system the name of Callahan-Folkston Telephone Co.

MRS. deGRAFFENREID DIED. Miss Kathleen DeGraffenreid of the Herald was called by telegram to Jasper, Fla. last Saturday on account of the critical illness of her mother who was with relatives at that place. Monday of this week the sad news of the death of the good woman reached Folkston which caused sorrow in every home in town.

FIRE. Fire Monday night destroyed the house occupied by section foreman K.R. Gordon and family, together with almost all his household goods. The flames were making rapid progress when discovered and the occupants of the building narrowly escaped without injury. Being in a remote suburb, few of our citizens knew of the destructive fire until Tuesday morning. Besides the heavy loss in household furnishings Mr. Gordon and a boarder in the home lost $20.00 to $30.00 in paper money which was consumed with their wearing apparel. The fire occurred about midnight and its origin is unknown.

August 20, 1914

THE GRIM REAPER SPREADS SORROW. The Death Angel has again visited the DeGraffenreid home and taken Mrs. Kate DeGraffenreid, one of our very best Christian women. The Jasper correspondent of the Times-Union tells of the passing away of the good woman as follows, her death occurring in that city: Jasper, Fla., August 15th - Mrs. Kate DeGraffenreid died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Julia Tuten last Monday morning at 1:00 o'clock after being sick only a few days. This was one of the saddest deaths which has occurred in Jasper for some time on account of fact that only ten days before this she and her four children had accompanied the body of her husband here to be buried, he having died in Folkston on July 31. She was taken with a severe stroke of paralysis on the day after the funeral of her husband, from which she never recovered. She was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J.D. Tuten and was a good Christian woman. Besides her mother, sister and several brothers, she leaves two daughters, Kathleen and Julia Belle and two small sons, Charley and Maurry. The body was laid to rest beside her husband Monday afternoon in Evergreen Cemetery. She was 43 years of age when death claimed her.

J.D. WILLIAMS DIED. J.D. Williams, well known citizen of St. George, died at an early hour Monday morning.

McDONALD MOVES IN NEW STORE. B.G. McDonald has moved his stock of merchandise into the new and handsome building he has just erected and the storeroom he vacated is now occupied by the Folkston Grocery Co.

NEW BRIDGES. Charlton County Commissioners Minutes: It was agreed that the Cornhouse Creek Bridge be let to A.G., Gowen, Jr. for $350.00; the Harris Creek Bridge be let to E.F. Dean for $448.00 and Boones Creek Bridge be let to E.F. Dean for $442.00.

THE DRUG STORE. Dr. Dallas Williams will soon have all his fixtures set up and will be in to his friends and customers in one of the neatest and best stocked drug stores to be found in any of the small cities. He is a nearby neighbor of the Herald's and has already been generous toward yours truly at his handsome soda fountain. May he live long and be very prosperous.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING. Folkston's new school building will soon be in course of construction. It is to be a modern school house in all its appointments. Material is being placed on the ground and work on the building will begin at an early date.

August 27, 1914

THE DRUG STORE. "The coolest place in town" is rapidly nearing completion. Already the young folks are beginning to saunter past the Herald office in quest of some delicious beverages. Hurry, Dr. Williams, these hot days can't last long now!

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING. Work on the school building is going on at a rapid rate. Probably the children's voices may be heard at their lessons by the middle of October.

WEDDING. On Sunday morning at 8:30 occurred the marriage of Miss Hilda Mattox and William J. Jones. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate families being present. The bride is one of Folkston's own girls and was reared here from infancy. She has taught during the past two years in Folkston and has many friends among the parents of the school children. The groom is well known and liked in this little city and has a host of friends. He is an employee of the A.C.L. Railroad Co. They will live in Willacoochee.

PARTING WORDS. Beginning the first week in September the Charlton Herald will be in the hands of T.W. Wrench of St. George. Mr. Wrench is an old newspaper man and is well known in this county. During the short time that my father ran this paper we became acquainted with many of the good people of dear old Charlton and a relationship as editor and publisher is not longer possible. KATHLEEN deGRAFFENREID.

DIGESTS FOR SEPTEMBER THROUGH DECEMBER ARE MISSING.
